Clipper Mill is situated on the site of a former foundry that played a key role in Baltimore's history, this new neighborhood is setting out to make some history of its own. Vibrant. Dynamic. Built from a "green" perspective. Clipper Mill possesses an undeniable charm and character. Here, you can live, work and play within the wooded Jones Falls Valley, Nestled between Hampden, Woodberry and Druid Hill Park. Clipper Mill is close to everything you love and need in the city, Including great shopping and dining, cultural attractions and public transportation.
